UNKNOWN SUSPECT - COMMERCIAL ROBBERIES

Greater Boston, Massachusetts Area
May 2019 through September 2019

DETAILS

The FBI's Violent Crimes Task Force in Boston, Massachusetts, requests the public's assistance in identifying the person believed to be responsible for at least nine armed robberies at multiple convenience stores around the Greater Boston area between May 24, 2019, and September 21, 2019.

The suspect, who should be considered armed and dangerous, is described as a male wearing dark clothing and a mask and brandishing a semi-automatic handgun.

On May 24, 2019, at approximately 10:20 p.m., the suspect, wearing a black mask, dark-colored sweatshirt, gray gloves, black pants, and red and black sneakers, entered the Fairmont Food Mart, 674 Truman Parkway, Hyde Park, Massachusetts, and displayed a black and silver handgun. The suspect approached the cashier and demanded money.

Almost two months later, on July 12, 2019, at approximately 9:30 p.m., the suspect, wearing a black mask and black hooded sweatshirt, gray gloves, black pants, and red and black sneakers, returned to the same Fairmont Food Mart in Hyde Park, Massachusetts. He demanded money from the cashier while brandishing a black and silver handgun.

On August 17, 2019, at approximately 7:58 p.m., the suspect, wearing identically described clothing and a black mask, walked into Five Corners Market, 161 Newbury Avenue, Quincy, Massachusetts. A white logo was seen on the left leg of his black pants. The suspect was again described as brandishing a black and silver handgun. He demanded money and cigarettes.

Little more than an hour later that same night, at approximately 9:05 p.m., the suspect, wearing the same clothing and a black mask, and holding a black and silver handgun, entered Milton Food Mart, 133 Brook Road, Milton, Massachusetts, and demanded money. He stole from both the cash register and the attendant's wallet.

Less than 24 hours later, on August 18, 2019, at approximately 9:55 p.m., the suspect, described as wearing a black hooded sweatshirt, mask, black pants, and gray gloves, approached a cashier at Mullaney's Variety Package, 203 West Squantum Street, Quincy, Massachusetts. Upon entering the store, he brandished a black and silver handgun, then approached the cashier and demanded money.

The following night, on August 19, 2019, at approximately 10:05 p.m., the suspect entered Terri's Market, 12 Louise Road, Dedham, Massachusetts, wearing a mask and dressed in a black hooded sweatshirt, black pants with a white logo on the left leg, gray gloves, and red and black sneakers. He demanded money from the cashier while armed with a silver handgun.

On August 23, 2019, at approximately 10:30 p.m., the suspect, again masked and wearing identical clothing, including black pants with a white logo on the left leg, robbed the PIT Stop sandwich shop, 695 Truman Parkway, Hyde Park, Massachusetts. He brandished a black and silver handgun and demanded money from the cashier.

Then, on August 26, 2019, at approximately 8:30 p.m., the suspect allegedly returned a second time to the Milton Food Mart, 133 Brook Road, Milton, Massachusetts, wearing a black mask, black hooded sweatshirt, gray gloves, black pants, and red and black sneakers. He demanded money from the cashier, while brandishing a black and silver handgun.

On September 21, 2019, at approximately 8:35 p.m., the suspect, described as wearing a black hooded sweatshirt with gray panels on the sleeves and under the arms, gray pants, black sneakers and gray gloves, walked into the Everest Market, 121 Standish Avenue, Quincy, Massachusetts, brandishing a black and silver semi-automatic handgun. A store clerk was ordered to empty the registers as the suspect told the clerk, "I don't want to hurt you, and don't lie to me." The suspect also grabbed the clerk's cellphone, but left it near an exit as he was fleeing.
